EXTRA SUGAB CURED CANVASSED HAMS, just re ceived and for sale by

Axes | Axes ! Western pattern, Ohio pattern,
Yankee "Bayton" heavy p
Western "Silver Steel. Bor'n Axes, X to 3 lbs.
Jan. 10

Mulay Mill Saws. JUST received another lot of the above Saws. Also, lots of Butting or Brag Saws, for Sawing Wood by

G. G. No dissacisfied Faces are overseen to leave GAV.

CLE VER SHELLERS, best made for Sale at man ufacturers price a y
Aug 1 762
C. C. CHAMBERLAIN. Hoop Skirts.

S. P. & J. J. SHUR. GOOD NEWS FOR THE PEOPLE.

GREAT REDUCTION IN PRICES OF DRY GOODS.

Mendenhall & Miller A RE NOW OPENING A FRESH STOCK OF BEAUTIFUL

SPRING GOODS.

themselves of this chance to make their Spring pur chance, while prions are LOW. Our peculiar facilities warrant us in giving our contemporar April 24, 1863. 1863.

New Goods

FOR SPRING AND SUMMER

TRADE

WILLIAMS & CO.

erris, QCALITY and FRICE, we challenge a compari with any Stock of Goods in Central Obio. One asse

Fancy and Staple Dry Goods, Choice Family Groceries, Crockery and Glassware, Oil Cloths, Paper Hangings, Table Cutlery, and Notions, all the Departments our stock is complete, and we in a designation of articles immedessary. Give us a , and we will furnish the Goods desired of a quality at articles that will not fail to give satisfaction. Store-Room No. 1. Williams Block.

as Produce of nearly every kind taken in exchange Goods, as panel Goods, as usual. Selaware, June 12, 1863.

SPRING & SUMMER TRADE.

BOOTS & SHOES

TRUE & DUNLAP.

AT THE OLD STAND OF J. do I. Day, OFFER TO THEIR PRIENDS A LARGE AND

BOOTS & SHOES Leather & Findings.

Homemade Work WARRANTED.

The ladies are invited to call and exam

Congress Gaiters,

Lasting Balmorals, &c., &c.

GREAT ATTRACTION At John F. Latimer's MUSIC STORE

Sandusky Street, Delaware, O.

NEW IMPR VEB OVER STRUNG IRON FRAME Waggoner Piano Forte, OF THEIR OWN MANUFACTURE

Melodeons,

Guitars,

- Violins,

Violincellos,

AND all Kinds of Musical Merchandise At Wholesale and Retail.

Photagraph Albums! All Kinds-From 75c. to $25.

- Stationery, Perfumery, Fancy Goods, Portmonies. Pocket Knives,

THE DELAWARD GAZIONED

A REPUBLICAN JOURNAL: DEVOTED TO NEWS, LITERATURE, POLITICS, AND HOME INTERESTS.

VOL. XLV.

"MY MARYLAND."

It is a beautiful production, and peculiarly appropos at this juncture.

The rebsi foot no more shall tread,

The soil made sacred by our dead, Maryland! my Maryland! When loyalty its blood did pour,

We named thee ours for ever more.

The rebels came with beastings great,

They would not be the traitor's slave,

Freedom and Country they would save

Maryland 1 my Maryland !

Along the streets of Raitmore,

Maryland! my Maryland!

Maryland I my Maryland !

Maryland! my Maryland!

Margiand ! my Maryland

Spon Antietam's bloody plain,

The dead shall come to life again, their names shall coming ages write

From the grand hights of Maryland, Maryland! my Maryland! From every wale in Maryland. Maryland! my Maryland! From every heart goes up the cry! On, on, to victory or we die.

Oh send us help, great God on high ! Maryland ! my Maryland !

ONLY FLIRTING.

but a brief impression on his iron nature.

REPUTATION

Reputation should be, and is to every ser utmost importance in this life-a priceless gem to deck fallen nature and give to human dross

we are all personally interested, as our success and usefulness in life, our position in society and our temporal pleasures, as well as our e ternal happiness, in a great measure depend upon it. Without reputation, wealth becomes ossesses no distinction-beauty, with every ersonal accomplishment, looses its charm, and

ABOUT LIFE.

bly be ashamed and repent. But oppose tem-otherwise command.

Who did their country's battles fight,

Maryland ! my Maryland !

Maryland ! my Maryland !

Maryland ! my Maryland !

Our men cose up so true and brave

The following parody on the famous rebelliong, "My Maryland," was written by Mrs.

What Did Vallandigham Do !

ALICE BALLARD, of Athens, Ohio, while passing the "grand hights of Maryland" in the cars discussing the question of the arrest:

WHAT VALLANDIGHAM DID. the Constitution, or if he be of that bat-like resist the laws of the land." nature, which flits and flickers in the twilight Not one syllable of this is denied, and yet between patriotism and treason, so that it nev- the arrest is complained of as unconstitutioner can, at a given moment, be certainly known al which side he favors, then of the charge under which he was arrested .-It shows us exactly the ground of his arrest. fall, and the blushes she could not conceal flash inquiry, as admitted.

"May shame and dishonor sit By his grave ever; Blessings shall hallow it, Never! No, never!"

into her cheeks at the tones of your voice .chains from which she could not release her- not expressing in secresy and seclusion his States are not all criminals, if our Generals all his might. self without suffering, which might be greater private feelings or misgivings, but seeking publand soldiers are not all minious and pimps of "Can you read that printing now?" toquirto her than death. Don't tell me your intentions were harmless—you never proposed—never told her you loved her, and all that sort of thing; you did tell her you loved her, ay, a thing; you did tell her you loved her, ay, a did to have been and carried to the purpose to have been to enside the produce an effect on the public mind, to mold acts which Ger. Burnside was sent here to perform, and the acts of Vallandigham, considering the form, and the acts of Vallandigham, considering the constant and carried that printing now to a wicked scheme to ensiave the people. Vallandigham ought to have been arrested. The acts which Ger. Burnside was sent here to perform, and the acts of Vallandigham, considering the constant that printing now to the people. Vallandigham ought to have been arrested. The acts which Ger. Burnside was sent here to perform, and the acts of Vallandigham, considering the constant that printing now to the people. Vallandigham ought to have been arrested. The acts which Ger. Burnside was sent here to perform, and the acts of Vallandigham, considering the constant that printing now to the people. Vallandigham ought to have been arrested. The acts which Ger. Burnside was sent here to perform, and the acts of Vallandigham, considering the constant printing now to the people. Vallandigham ought to have been arrested. The acts which Ger. Burnside was sent here to perform the constant printing now to the people. Vallandigham ought to have been arrested. The acts which Ger. Burnside was sent here to perform the constant printing now to the people. Vallandigham ought to have been arrested. The acts which Ger. Burnside was sent here to perform the constant printing now to the people. The constant printing now to the people to the constant printing now to the people. The constant printing now to the people to the constant printing now to th your lips had sworn to it. And then, how ernment of the United States, by declaring in their essence and nature, incompatible calmly, and courteously, at last, you said fare disloyal sentiments and opinions. He declar things, and mutually destructive of each othwell to her, wishing her that lifetime happiness ed the war to be wicked and cruel, and unneceder. If Gen. Burnside might have arrested which your work had forever blasted. And essary, and a war not waged for the preserva- Jefferson Davis, and held him a prisoner, why ed the dealer, imputientlyas chivalric, your bonor as untargished as ever, more plain and cogent language could be urge ganizing of armies, and marching to battle to thought I'd buy 'em without tryin' 'em !" but remember that the stain is on your soul. - his audience themselves to take up arms against suppress insurrection, it cannot at the same You have stolen, basely, deliberately stolen, their government? If those who heard him time authorize the other part of the popular Paddy Hayes and the Turtle. coough to her aid to hide from the world that not hope to pursuade them to join their symmust be poor, dumb dogs, not to rally, and at the same time. Spring is slow. It takes that blue-eyed young lady weeks to get up a respectable show a really at once, for the overthrow of their own Government, and for the support of those who make war upon it. But he did not leave it to greens, and before she has fairly opened all be inferred. He declared it to be a war for ifornia, in his report says: the leaves, Summer takes the business off her the enslavement of the whites and the freedom There are now in California perhaps sixty hands. Summer, too, loiters over her task of of the blacks. Which of the two was, in his thousand Chinamen. The mass of these are sweetening and painting the fruits, and ting- opinion, the greater outrage, he does not ap- engaged in mining, but they have their own ing the harvest field with gold, and Autumn pear to have stated. It is one of the unmishas to take up and complete her unfinished takable marks of the insurrection, by which ments. They are a great traveling people at task. Nor is Autumn a swift artist, for it is it can always be identified, that its declara- ter they have once been shaken loose from the not until mid October that she gives the last tions for liberty are for a selfish and brutal soil on which they were born, and there is a glowing touches to the sylvan scenery. But Winter is a fast old boy. Like Comus he has or disregarding others. If his white audience the country. Many find employment as house but to wave his hand and the nerves of nature were not willing to be enslaved, that is to say servants, a few as laborers in markets and are all "chained up in alabaster." All his sigmyriads from the mines of Upper Air, and man nature, they must, so far as they believed the lighter kinds of agricultural work.

rections have their pretexts. The man who ing, indirectly, for the evangelization of Chifurnishes these, is more guilty than the man na. age fails to excite reverence which it would surrection, or there is not and cannot be a merely to hear a religious discourse. place of insurrection anywhere. If these labmanufacture traitors faster than our armies lowing curious story of animal life:

is let alone, he will cool down, and may possi- the order forbade to be done?

DELAWARE, OHIO, JULY 24, 1863. ter." The "minious" here referred to were the In his argument before Judge Levitt, peod- commanding General of the Department and ing the consideration of the application for a others, charged with official duties under their writ of habeas corpus in the Vallandigham ed to be restricted, were liberties to aid the case, Aabox F. Perry, Esq., counsel for Gen enemies of the United States. He declared Burnside, thus dispassionately and forcibly an- his own purpose to do what he could to defeat swers the question "What did Vallandigham the attempt now being made to build up a do?" so frequenly asked by his admirers when ment. This resistance could mean nothing but resistance to his own government, which he had before declared to be making attempts Let us, then, turn to the petition of Clem- to enslave the whites. These appeals to that ent L. Vallandigham, and see how its presents large public meeting, are charged to have been bim. I know nothing, and desire to know made for the purpose of weakening the pownothing, of the man in this case, except what er of his own government in its efforts to supis shown by the papers before us. It is neith press an unlawful rebellion," all of which sener my habit nor my pleasure to incumber an timents "he well knew did aid, comfort and enargument with personalities. But I may say, courage those in arms against the Government, and will say, that if Mr. Vallandigham be a and could but induce in his hearers a distrust public man, aspiring to lead public opinion in of their own Government, and sympathy for this great crisis, and be, in fact, disloyal to those in arms against it, and a disposition to

If the object of the Constitution was to mouth, but he was too smart for that, not willing to endure the last and most de- warehouses and sen-going vessels; hundreds grading outrage possible to be inflicted on hu- are employed in manufactories, and more when he breathes on the floods they turn to him, resist their own Government. If he him- All these men are daily learning facts an liamond plains. He is the Merlin of the Sea- self believed what he said, he must take up receiving impressions. A large portion of sons. Under his spells the landscape lies in an arms to resist his Government, or stand a con- them will return to their own country, to mi enchanted sleep, and the Maid of the Mist, fessed poitroon. A public man, who believes gle again with the dense population of that the fairy Thaw, though she sometimes softens that his government is guilty of the crimes he idolatrous empire, and what they learn will be his hard moods and moves him to tears, makes imputed, and will not take up arms against it, carried home with them, and will be retailed is guilty of unspeakable baseness. If his an to their neighbors. If what they learn while lience believed what he told them, they must here is good, its influence throughout China have looked upon advice not to take up arms will be good; if what they learn is bad, its as insincere or contemptible. No public man, influence will be bad; therefore, the more the Reputation should be, and is to every sensible and reflecting individual, a subject of the attmost importance in this life, a priceless gendecently claim not to make war. All insurthe Chinese in California, the more she is do-who believes them and acts on them. If the One result of Chicese emigration will be to statements of Vallandigham were true, the correct their absurb notions in matters of gepretexts were ample, not merely as pretexts, ography, history and science, and to enlarge but as justification of insurrection. They were their knowledge of the arts. To promote this more: they were incitements which it would be end, we give a lecture occasionally on some of valueless-lofty birth and dignified station disgraceful to resist, and which human nature these subjects, accompanied with illustrations. generally has no power to resist. The place By this means important truth has been imwhere such things are done, is the place of in-

A Sparrow Divorce and Revenge. oratories are to be kept in full blast, they will The Shields (England) Gazette has the fol-If it is well for a man to live at all, he can kill them. This cruel process finds no In the interior of the Tyne Dock waggon ould endeavor to avoid all those influences shelter under plea of political discussion. shops the attention of the workmen was, about which detract from the beauty and harmony Whatever might be said about ballots and e- a week ago, attracted to the movements of of human existence. In other words he should sections, the legal inference is that it is intendmake the most of life," and not allow himself ed to produce the results which would naturnest in a hollow iron roof. For several days to be distracted, annoyed or confounded by ally flow from it. If the President, with all they labored most assiduously in preparing their anything. He should fully possess himself, be- the army and navy, and his "minions," is at abode, when, by some sudden freak, the proing at peace with his own soul, and having work to overthrow liberty and enslave the gress of the tiny fabric was suspended. A few great good will for all mankind. Life, then, whites, every good man must fear to see that mornings afterwards the ears of the workmen great good will for all mankind. Life, then, whites, every good man must lear to see that mornings all erwards the care of the will have a beautiful significance to him; its current will be deep and flow gently on—in last the beauties of the world reflected.

whites, every good man must lear to see that mornings all erwards the care of the world chirupings and fluttering of wings, and from what transpired subhimself from slavery, now, while he can. The sequently it was evident that the female bird elections are far off, and may be too late. It had severed the commbial bond, and culisted The home will be kept in turmoil where can not be claimed that the motive was to in- the affections of another, who now vigorously there is no toleration of each other's errors .- | fluence elections, because the argument does contended with the rejected bird for the pos-If you lay a single stick of wood on the grate, not fit that motive. It fits to insurrection, session of the nest. For several hours the and apply fire to it, it will go out; put on an and that only. He pronounced General Or conflict continued, until the usurper proved other stick, and they will burn; and a half a ders No. 38 to be a base usurpation, and indozen sticks, and you will have a blaze. If one vited his hearers to resist it. How resist it? terward returned and hovered about the spot, member of the family gets into a passion, and How could they resist it unless by doing what apparently watching an opportunity for rethe order forbade to be done?
What was there to be complained of exof a short time the new-joined pair left for a A Big Bug Story. per to temper, pile on the fuel, draw in others cept by persons wishing to do, or to have done brief period. In their absence the defeated of the group, and let each one barshly answer, by others, the acts by that order prohibited? sparrow approached the nest, and, placing his there was a learned dissertion on the subject position, several of the crowd took boild of the and when they left the store, the ruffians fired all brought on for hard boiled. and soon there will be a blaze that will entrap He invited to resist the order. The order back beneath the feathery mass, raised it from of Bed bugs and their remarkable tenacity of thus to be resisted prohibited the following its resting place and sent it to the ground.- life. acts, viz: Acts for the benefit of the enemies of our country, such as carrying of secret at beholding the demolition of their dwelling could be boiled and then come to life. Some mails; writing letters sent by secret mails; re- appeared to be great, and was amusing to ob- had soaked them for hours in turpentine withcruiting of soldiers for the enemy inside our serve. Notwithstanding this disaster, how- out any fatal consequence. lines; entering into agreements to pass our ever, they commenced to build a second nest lines for the purpose of joining the enemy; in the same place, the rejected mate watching outsider, here gave his evidence in corrobora- to exist long before this time. He was howhat, who relieves one of his coat, and hands their being concealed within our lines while in their proceedings with apparent interest. After their being concealed within our lines while in their proceedings with apparent interest. After their being concealed within our lines while in their proceedings with apparent interest. After their being concealed within our lines while in their proceedings with apparent interest. After their being concealed within our lines while in their proceedings with apparent interest. After the service of the enemy; being improperly ter two days of incessant labor they again left of the service of the enemy; being improperly ter two days of incessant labor they again left of the service of the enemy; being improperly ter two days of incessant labor they again left of the service of the enemy; being improperly ter two days of incessant labor they again left of the service of the enemy; being improperly ter two days of incessant labor they again left of the service of the enemy; being improperly ter two days of incessant labor they again left of the service of the enemy; being improperly ter two days of incessant labor they again left of the service of the enemy; being improperly ter two days of incessant labor they again left of the service of the enemy; being improperly ter two days of incessant labor they again left of the service of the enemy; being improperly ter two days of incessant labor they again left of the service of the enemy; being improperly ter two days of incessant labor they again left of the service of the enemy; being improperly ter two days of incessant labor they again left of the service of the enemy; being improperly ter two days of incessant labor they again left of the service of the enemy; being improperly ter two days of incessant labor they again left of the enemy; being improperly ter two days of incessant labor they again left of the enemy; being improperly ter two days of incessant labor they again left of the enemy; being improperly the enemy term agai within our lines by persons who could give for a short time, and, taking advantage of their iron foundry, and dropped it into the ladle breathing longer than would any other com- which announces that a fine of $50 will be imsolicited, such delignous songs; who casts herself at one's foot-stool, and ciaspe one's hand, self at one's foot-stool, and ciaspe one's foot-stool, and ciaspe one's foot-stool, and ciaspe one's foot-stool, and ciaspe one's foot-s self at one's foot-stool, and claspe one's hand, asks eager, unheard-of questions with such bright eyes and flushing face, and on whose light flossy curls one places one's hand and light flossy curls one places one's hand light flossy curls one places one's hand light flossy curls one place breathes, "God bless her !" as the fairy form departs. But there is an angle following in the factor of the land and breathes, "God bless her !" as the fairy form the ited in Order No. 38, which Mr. Vallandigham

And John he shook the popper Till both their faces grew as red As saucejans made of copper

And then they shelled and popied and ste, Ah kindr of fun a poking— While he haw thaw'd at her remarks, And she laughed at his joking. And still they popped, and still they are John's mouth was like a hopper— And streed the fire and sprakled salt, and shook and shook the popper.

The clock struck nine—the clock struck ten, *
And still the corn kept peopeng—
If struck seven, and then struck tewelve!
And still no signs of stopping! And John he ate, and Sue she thought, The corn did pop and patter— Tall Joan cried out, "The corn's a fire? Why, Susan, what's the matter?"

I'm sick of all this popping corn! Why don't you pop the question?

It must be so apparent as to need no further thousand times you told this, by tone, and direction? The charge says, by expressing his deed, and look, just as emphatically as though sympathies for those in arms against the Governley of the charge says, by expressing his ed as separate nets, or as lines of action, unable to conceal his vexation any longer.

"Rade at all, is it?" cried the customer.—
"Rade at all, is it?" cried the customer.— "There's not a single word among them that I "I say, do you know how to read?" exclaim-

Removald to not his finger in the turtle's confidence which should have been his, for that heart will never learn the sweet songs of its youth again, and though the wife of his, she sits in the shadows of his heart stone, still, the foundating from which you took the seal, will never yield its fresh, sweet waters as before.

The immediately called up his dog, took his and and stuck it in the turtle's grown up rioters, and shamefully abused—he have thought of his andience? What else but the legitimate result of his argument can but the legitimate result of his argument can but the legitimate result of his hopes?—

Turtle shut down on the poor dog's tail, and of the Colored Orphan Asylum on Fifth avenue. The house of the Colored Orphan Asylum on Fifth avenue. The house of the Colored Orphan Asylum on Fifth avenue. The house of the Colored Orphan Asylum on Fifth avenue. The house of the Colored Orphan Asylum on Fifth avenue. The house of the colored Orphan A ever it had traveled before. The countryman ren was totally destroyed, after being pillaged thinking his days work would be thrown away in every part. Whatever of manliness the if the animal should run at that speed, turned separate members of this mob might have had. with a savage look upon the Irishman and ex- all had gone out before the feli and vengeful

> Patrick put his hands into his pocket rew his head to one side winking, and then nswered with a provoking sang froid: "Call back your fish."

The Courting of a Sharp Man of Bu- few hours. Potts is a sharp man, a man of business tact. and when he goes into a store to trade, he always gets the lowest cash price; and he says; Well, I'll look about and if I don't find anyhing that suits me better. I'll call and take Potts said to himself:-"I'm gotting rather one in years and guess I'll get married." His business qualities wouldn't let him wait, so off be travels, and calling upon a lady friend, opened conversation by remarking that he my dear girl, will you marry me?" The young lady blushed, hesitated, and finally, as Pous was very well to do in the world. and morally, financially, and politically of shocking manner. good standing in society, she accepted

"Sure un' he's a white mau!"

"Well, by my sowl, I've been desayed in

A few evenings since, in our "private club,"

The Great New York Riot.

The New York papers are filled with detailed accounts of the fearful riot in that city, marched up Forty-fourth street, numbering which commenced Monday 13th inst. and con- some 800, on their way to the doomed Colortinued to rage the greater part of the week .- ed Orphan Asylum, and precieving an unlucky It was one of the most terrible exhibitions of room, rushed in after ransacking the bar and mob violence ever witnessed in this country, pillinging the rooms, set fire under the stairs and the outrages committed were horrible in and in a few minutes the building was blazing the extrem. We have neither room nor dia, on all four corners. order to show the spirit of the mob give a few Most of their books and papers were destroy-of the mob; the exciting reports which spread | jured. all over the city; the reflection that New York was for once deprived of organized means of The Orphan Asylum (in Fifth avenue, near A dealer advertised eye-glasses, by the aid defense; the incessant toll of the bells, signal- Forty-sixth street), was fired about 5 o'clock the water all the time, and one on the throat demonstration, that an arrest of some kind of which a person could easily read the finest ing in the afternoon, the infuriated mob, eager all the time, with a dry fiancel covering the had become necessary for the preservation of print. A well dressed man called at the countries of smoke, and in the evepublic decency. Either Gen. Burnside and ter one day to be fitted to a pair of spectacles. ning called attention to the Northern sky, red simple suggestion that the building was full extent; the flannels abould not be so his soldiers should have been arrested, or Val- As he remarked that he had never worn any, and lurid with conflagration, over which mad of colored children. They clamored around when put on as to dribble the water, for it is The petition exhibits and sets forth a copy landigham. The only open question is, which so ne were handed to him that magnified very men and inturiate women presided; the story the house like demons, filling the air with important to keep the clothing as dry as poswas the proper party, and whether a mistake little. He looked hard through them upon of defeated and baffled soldiers and police; the yells. A few policemen, who attempted to sible, and the body and feet of the child comwas the proper party, and whether a manual months and the book set before him, but declared he could business streets with stores and offices all clos- make a stand, were instantly overpowered— fortable and warm. As soon as one flanced By referring to the and specifications, we have was right, Gen. Burnside and every other of make out nothing. Another pair of stronger ed; the side-walks, ordinarily thronged, now several being severely or fatally injured. While you were "harmlessly" flirting with before us the case. It is not a little remarkation of the army and navy, every member of power were saddled upon his nose, but unsuethe girl, you knew she loved you—that her ble that no part of the charge or specification the Cabinet, even the President himself, should constitute and public carriages silent—all disposed gave notice to the inmates to quit keep up this process until the doctor comes, or heart would quicken at the sound of your foot is denied. It stands, for the purpose of this be forthwith put under arrest. Congress, until at length the almost discouraged dealer these combined to give a pervading air of the building. one formwith put under street, and one passed to him a pair which magnified more the deepest gloon and anxiety to the whole than all the rest in his stock. The customer, one the deepest gloon and anxiety to the whole than all the rest in his stock. The customer, one the deepest gloon and anxiety to the whole than all the rest in his stock. The customer, one the deepest gloon and anxiety to the whole than all the rest in his stock. The customer, one the deepest gloon and anxiety to the whole than all the rest in his stock. You knew that during a long time you were tions.]

Some a tory on the last pair and to you were the standard of the promptly dispersed.—

On the other hand, if the President and Gonthe authorities to check or repress the learful demolition commenced. First the main built wakes up both fiannels will be dry. of your young and unsuspecting victim the dressed a large meeting of citizens. He was gress, and the Government of the United ered through them at the printed page with spirit which had so quickly sprung up, and all ding was gutted, and then set on fire. While [Hall's Journal of Health.] wondered to what further excesses the shame- it was burning, the large wing adjoining-used

The riot began with an attempt to put an Several hundred iron bedsteads were carried very best compounds known to us for renderend to the draft. It had a certain definite or- off-such an exodus of this article was never ing leather boots and shoes almost perfectly ganization and purpose, and a quiet, self-assert- witnessed before perhaps. They radiated in waterproof, and at the same time keeping ed, or recognised leadership. It was, from the every direction for half a mile. outset, determined, bold and cruel. It respect- Carpets were dragged away at length; desks, beef tallow, half an ounce, yellow bees-wax ed no right of private property, scorned the stools, chairs, tables, books of all kinds-ey- one once, and one eighth of an ounce of shell weak resistance offered to it, and overrode all enything moveable-was carried off. Even lac. Melt the tallow first, and then remove that opposed. Reinforced shortly by boys and the caps and bonnets of the poor children all the membrane from it; add the bees-wax women, gathering to itself great masses of ex- were stolen. The writer picked up fragments in thin shavings, and when it is meliced and cited people, it soon enlarged the sphere of its of testaments for a quarter of a mile down combined with the tallow, add the shellac in now, sir, whatever be your social position, how broad soever the land of your father, bow broad soever be the coffers of your gold, you have debased yourself and dishonored your late and dishonored your late and how broad soever be the coffers of your gold, and that it have debased yourself and dishonored your late and how broad soever late and how broad so the soever late and how broad soever late and how broad soever late and the soever late and how broad soever late and how broad soever late and the soever late and the dealer, impations and the dealer in our late and the dealer in our late and the dealer i manhood. Go forth into the world, and let would be cowardly and dishonorable not to incredible absurdity. If it authorizes the that your glasses and help 'em to rade aisy; but Costly farniture was destroyed for mere pleasyour carriage be as proud, your air to woman fight against the United States? In what drafting of one part of the population, the or- it's a big lie, it is! Ah, ye biackgurd, ye are of mischiet. Stores were broken open and ers, who seemed endowed with a demoniac of using it a rag or a piece of sponge should be their contents were distributed among the mob. energy to rend in pieces, rob and destroy. employed, and the boot or shoe held cautionaly to which have flocked thieves, rogues and knaves | Shutters and doors were torn off and tum- before the fire or stove until the compound of every degree. It is evident that men bent bled into the street. These were seized and souks into it. Care must be exercised not to the one priceless treasure of a woman's heart could not be incited to fight against a governtion to the one priceless treasure of a woman's heart could not be incited to fight against a governtion to the first.— torn to pieces almost before they touched the expose the leather too close to the first.— -its affections. You have robbed her of her ment by pursuading them it was making an other hand, if it authorizes a portion of the turtle along the street, when along came an Officers and citizens were knocked down and ground, and, with everything else, carried off boot be blackened and brushed until it betrust in human goodness and truth, and though if she be a true woman, shall summon pride else could be expect to incite them? If he did Government, it can not require the other portion of this town thousands together were in possession of propwere injured, and it is supposed some killed, preparation it will remain black and shining erty which had been stolen. Taking a politic- by the falling a al turn, the inhumanity of the mob became the windows. Even the gutters were bewn the vegetable tar mixed with the foregoing not be less terrible to be borne.

You have robbed another of the which should have been his, for that confidence which should have been his, for that confidence which should have been his, for that confidence which should have been his, for that composition was to provide for its own destruction and protect its composition makes it more adhesive and improved the windows. Even the guiters were head provide for its own destruction and protect its composition makes it more adhesive and improves its quality for walking in snow. A first composition was to provide for its own destruction and protect its composition makes it more adhesive and improves its quality for walking in snow. A first composition was to provide for its own destruction and protect its composition makes it more adhesive and improves its quality for walking in snow. A first composition was to provide for its own destruction and protect its composition makes it more adhesive and improves its quality for walking in snow. A first composition was to provide for its own destruction and protect its composition makes it more adhesive and improves its quality for walking in snow. A first composition was to mouth, but here than much the foregoing provide for its own destruction and protect its composition makes it more adhesive and improves its quality for walking in snow. A first composition was to provide for its own destruction and protect its composition makes it more adhesive and improves its quality for walking in snow. A spirit which the organization took on. The city was disgraced. For hours it lay helpless beneath the awful rule of its most dangerous ing buildings, all looked forward with tremb-

HOW COL, O'BRIEN WAS MURBERED.

(From the Report of the New York Herald.) Had the commander of this military force American citizen, I am ashamed." Potts, like atl men, is partial to women, and some ones in particular. Now quite lately

But fatality had destined him for its victim, and his head split open.

But fatality had destined him for its victim, and his head split open.

As soon as the stores were stripped, the cry frictional action puts on the gloss. "Elbow" stayed in the drug store some few minutes ; it arose; is thought that he went in to get some refresh- "Burn the building! Burn it!" Burn it!" nents. The crowd were around the door at this time. There was scarcely a word spoken, but the lowering glances of one thousand men in as many places at once; for it was in flames fruit add one pound of sugar and let it stand ould like to know what she thought about looked down in their vengeful spirit upon him from garret to basement in five minutes. The his getting married.

"O Mr. Potts, that is an affair in which I am not so greatly interested, and I prefer to walked out on the sidewalk in the very center.

"O Mr. Potts, that is an affair in which I am not so greatly interested, and I prefer to walked out on the sidewalk in the very center.

"O Mr. Potts, that is an affair in which I award and with a revolver in the other hand. Asylum, the engines were on hand, but were of the crowd. He was immediately surround, forced to be idle. The firemen restrained "But," says Potts, "you are intenested, and ed, and one of the men came up behind, and themselves with difficulty—unaccustumed to striking him a heavy blow on the back of the see the flames rage without fighting themhead, staggered him. The crawd then imme- and at length began to play on the adjoining gar to every pound of fruit-braise them todiately surrounded him and beat him in a most buildings in which they were not interrupted.

good standing in society, she accepted him. Whereupon the matter-of-fact Potts restrong arms of the crowd and hurried to the postmaster wareman's residence destroyed. "Well, well, I'll look about, and if I don't first lamppost, where it was strong up by a rope. The residence of Abram Wakeman, Post-After a few minutes the body was taken down, master of this city, in Eighty-sixth street master of this city, in Eighty-sixth street was taken and the being still alive, and thrown like so much rubbish in the street.

The body lay in the middle of the street. politics in the corner of the reading-room (Irish fourth street. Nature shudders at the appaling servants are great politicians here) when one of them saddents a value of them saddents a value of them saddents a value of the rooters was plunder. They butter. They them suddenly exclaimed,
"Be jabers, boys, an' there's owld Greeley!"
"Where?" exclaimed his communions with "Where?" exclaimed his companions, with as much interest in their looks as they would naturally exhibit on being told that St. Patrick or Bishop Hughes was before them.

"Be jahers, boys, an' there's owld Greeley!"

utterly impossible to recognize it. The head length, and divided them among them; sacked the library, a collection of several thousand dollars, and removed everything valuable about the pressure.

Bustered Hands and cut them into pieces a yard in length, and divided them among them; sacked the library, a collection of several thousand dollars, and removed everything valuable about the pressure.

Bustered Hands and cut them into pieces a yard in length, and divided them among them; sacked the library, a collection of several thousand dollars, and removed everything valuable about the pressure.

Bustered Hands and cut them into pieces a yard in length, and divided them among them; sacked the library, a collection of several thousand dollars, and removed everything valuable about the pressure.

Bustered Hands are the carpets and cut them into pieces a yard in length, and divided them among them; sacked the library, a collection of several thousand dollars, and removed everything valuable about the pressure in the carpets and cut them into pieces a yard in length, and divided them among them; sacked the library, a collection of several thousand dollars, and removed everything valuable about the pressure in the carpets and cut them into pieces a yard in length, and divided them among them; sacked the library, a collection of several thousand dollars, and removed everything valuable about the pressure in the carpets and cut them into pieces a yard in length, and divided them among them; sacked the library, a collection of several thousand dollars, and removed everything valuable about the pressure in the carpets and cut them into pieces a yard in length, and divided them among them; sacked the length, and divided them among them; sacked the length, and divided them among them; sacked the length, and divid rick or Bishop Hughes was before them.
"Standan' yonder by the table, talkin' wid the tail gintieman."

bout the premises. Then they finished by setting the honse on fire. It was totally consumdy against blistering of hands or feet, the quickest coolness, and some even smiled at the gay the tail gintieman."

BLISTERED HANDS AND FEET.—As a remeting the honse on fire. It was totally consumdy against blistering of hands or feet, the quickest is lighting a tallow candle and letting the tallow drop into cold water, (to purify it, it is object. Our reporter walked leisurely among THE ATTACK ON BROOK'S CLOTHING STORE. ensely at Horace for an instant, when the the crowd which surrounded the body and in The Police of the Third Precinct, under youngest of them, apparently a late importation with the rest gazed upon the extended mass of flesh which was once the corpulent and Farrell, were sent to drive the rioters is better than the above, or vinegar a little "Av coorse he's a white man," said the first ing the fearful process which the soldier had Cherry and Catharine streets. The officers speaker, in a patronizing tone, as though Hor- gone through, he was yet breathing with evident strength. The eyes were closed, but there was a very apparent twitting of the sending them in bundles to their homes. The take out your eggs, and they will be found the ould fellow entirely," continued the other; eyelids, while the lips were now and a- force went in and clubbed down the thieves guin convulsed, as if in the most intense ag-aide of the street. This operation was gone One asserted of his own knowledge that they through with several times, when the crowd Great quantitities of the goods had been stoagain left the body lying in its original posi- len, and the store was gutted by the mob of Old Hanks, who had been listening to an constitution, he would certainly have ceased bearing the sash upon his shoulders. smash, and what do you think, gentlemen, that an application of a foot from one of the crowd ere insect just walked out of his hole, where would dash the already mangled mass again to graduates of Havard College who died last departs. But there is an angle following in invited his audience to resist. "The action of the soul is oftener in that the minions is anxious to bear our darling from us, and is a still lying in the mind's eye its white shadow flits between us and the darling of our earth.—Belton.

The action of the soul is oftener in that they will not submit to us, but who is not visible to us, but who is not visible to us, but who he'd bear larged in a rock, and he told them, "the people inform the minions is anxious to bear our darling from us, and in the mind's eye its white shadow flits between us and the darling of our earth.—Belton.

The action of the soul is oftener in that which is felt and left unsaid, than in that which is and in any conversation. It broads over the beat larged in the service of their count which is felt and left unsaid, than in that which is and in any conversation. It broads over the will be unstitute the soul is oftener in that which is felt and left unsaid, than in that which is and in any conversation. It broads over the will be unstituted his audience to resist. "The action of the soul is oftener in that which is felt and left unsaid, than in that which is and in any conversation. It broads over the beat larged in any conversation. It broads over the beat larged in the service of their count which is felt and left unsaid, than in that which is and in any conversation. It broads over the beat larged in the service of their count which is felt and left unsaid, than in that which is an any conversation. It broads over the beat larged in the service of their count which is felt and left unsaid, than in that which is an any conversation. It broads over the beat larged in the service of their count which is felt and left unsaid, than in that which is an any conversation. It broads over the beat larged in the service of their count which is felt and left unsaid, than in that which is an any conversation. It broads over the left the body was still lying in the street, and the carring in the service of

BURNING OF ALLERTON'S HOTEL.

Shortly after 3 o'clock p. m. the crowd policeman standing in Allerton's Hotel wash-

THE COLORED ORPHAN ASYLUN

as a dormitory-was stripped, inside and out.

classes, and when night came with its gloom breastpins, and all manner of valuable bijoute- pound of starch a piece of sperm, parafine, or ling and forehoding to the events of the wext tain himself, exclaimed: Had the commander of this military force taken his departure at this time, there is little. The words were scarce out of his mouth, be ed at the bottom and polished as bright as a lonht that his life would have been saved ... fore he was prostrated by a blow from a cudgel. mirror, is used. It is pressed firmly upon the Half a hundred willing hands were at work can.

(Yorkville,) was pillaged and destroyed Mon- when butter is plenty, work it thoroughly two day night. Mr. Wakeman at the time was or three times, and add at the last surrounded the store, which was filled with men, women and children stealing goods and them into cold water, when the water boils (sparing women and children.)

After lying for somewhat of an hour in this succeeded in driving the villains from the store; more palatable than the waxy-like eggs generbody by the legs, and drugged it from side to about twenty shots at them; but they were poor marksmen, and did little or no injury .plunderers. One thief, in his baste to make Had Colonel O'Brien been a man of weak good his escape, jumped through the window, CAPTUERD REBEL FLAGS .- On Wednesday night, Colonel Schriver arrived at the War Department with thirty-one Confederate battle-flags, captured on the 2d and 3d instant, at Gettysburg, Pennsylvania. Several of them bore Latin mottoes, while most of them had the plain red ground, with the cross and thirteen stars; one was a silk flag with the stars and bars, with the names of the battles through which it had been carried; another silk flag of the cross pattern has a rising sun in the center, with a Latin inscription. Seventeen of them bore their regimental marks on, viz: Seventh, Twenty-second, Twenty-third, and Thirty-fourth North Carolina; Thirteenth Alabama; First, Seventh, Ninth, Third, two of Eighteenth, Fourteenth, Thenty-eighth, Fifty-sixth, Fifty-third, and Thirty-eighth Virginia. They are all more or less bloody and torn, several of them having been carried since the first Buil Run battle. One of them had the regimental mark tern off, so as not to let the Federals know who lost it. They were all exhibited for a short time yesterday morning, in the yard attached to the War Depart-

Domestic Economy.

TREATMENT OF CROUP .- Croup is an infiamation of the inner surface of the windpipe .-Inflamation implies heat, and that heat must Messrs. Allerton & Co. and their clerks | be subdued, or the patient will inevitably die. position to give the sickening details, but in had barely time to escape with their lives.— If prompt efforts are made to cool the parts in case of an attack of croup, relief will be as ed, and the wearing apparel of all the guests prompt as it is surprising and delightful. All (From the New York Commercial Advertiser, July 14.) stolen. We saw one man who succeeded in know that hot water applied to a hot skin getting his trunk out and an armful of loose cools it, but all do not as well know and un-The origin and progress of the shamelul riot clothing. He was then set upon and robbed derstand that cold water applied to an inflamwhich broke out in this city yesterday, was of all he had. A grab was made at his watch ed skin will as certainly cool it off. Hence the given in our columns of the same date, and and the chain broke, which saved it. A vig- application of cold water with linen cloths, or to-day the history is continued. The mere orons effort was made to break open Allerton's of almost boiling water with woolen flannel particulars are of absorbing interest, and for safe, but the fire grew too hot before they got are very efficient in the cure of croup. Take the time overshadowing all other topics of thought. The unknown and uncertain terrors in the money, a very large sum, found uninfolds, large enough to cover the throat and upper part of the chest; put these in a pan of water as hot as the hand can bear, and keep it thus by adding water from a boiling teakettle at hand ; let two of the flannels be in

COMPOSITION FOR LEATHER. - One of the two weeks during winter will keep boots and shoes that are worn every day waterproof and While these scenes was enacting, a large Grossino Lines. - Inquiry is frequently detachment of rioters ran down to the woroll- made respecting the mode of putting a gloss ment rooms corner of Broadway and 'Twenty- on linnen collars and shirt bosoms, like that on ninth street. The object here was more evidently plunder. The lower part of this fine times called, is produced mainly by friction building was composed of stores, filled with with a warm iron, and may be put on lines by costly goods. Every vestige was carried off .- almost any person. The linen to be glaned A jeweler's thop was the object of special at- receives as much starch as it is possible to The flew about in the crowd, flashing in the white wax, about the size of a walnut, is usulight. The negroes were forgotten in the ally added. When ready to be frozed, the lin more congenial business of robbery. A gen-tleman stood by the writer and unable to cou-ly on the surface with a clean wet cloth. It is then ironed in the usual way with a flat-iron. "This is an unspeakable outrage-as an and is ready for the glossing operation. For grease" is the principal secret connected with the art of glossing linen.—[Scientific Ameri-

> over night. In the morning boil and skim for half an hour : then strain through a flannel

BLACKBERRY JAM .- Take one pound of sugether in a preserving pan with a spoon and hocking manner.

The walls fell nearly simultaneously, and let them simmer gently for an hour. When After having been terribly beaten, his all with an awful crash, not twenty minutes after cool put them into glass or china jars, and lay over them a piece of paper saturated with brandy tie themup carefully to exclude the air;

A trio of Irish servants were busy talking within a few yards of the corner of Thirty-tallow drop into cold water, (to purify it, it is diluted with water.

"just right," unless you require them boiled hard. If so, let them cook for half an hour, The men fell right and left, and the force and they digest much easier, and will be found our iron till you cannot bear your hand on it without burning yourself. Then rub it with new and clean white way. Put it again to the fire till it has soaked in the wax. When done, rub it over with a piece of serge. This pre-

-One ounce of pulverised borax, and half as sunce of gum camphor put into one quart of

We increase our losses ourselves, and club